HATIRLAYALIM

- Simple Present Tense expresses habitual routines, timetables and general truths; third-person singular (he/she/it) verbs take -s, -es, or -ies.
- Adverbs of frequency (always, usually, often, sometimes, rarely, never) answer 'How often...?' and sit before main verbs but after 'to be'.
- Time prepositions are structured as: 'at' for clock times, 'on' for days/dates, and 'in' for months, seasons, and parts of the day.
